

CIPD Learning Resources

CONTACT NUMBER
0808 100 1155

E-MAIL
INTEC@INTECBUSINESSCOLLEGES.CO.UK

WEBSITE
WWW.INTECBUSINESSCOLLEGES.CO.UK

Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD)

As part of your Apprenticeship programme with Intec Business Colleges, we use learning resources aligned to the Apprenticeship Standard. Developed by the recognised industry body CIPD, you can take confidence in the fact that your learning experience is aligned to current theories and good practices. Below you will find information on what this includes.

Apprenticeship Resources

CIPD puts you on the path to professional recognition, and your dedication to learning and development helps you to stand out in your chosen field of employment. Accessing these resources, forums and guided by Intec's Tutors you will have a rich learning experience.

You'll be equipped for study success. You'll benefit from professional content, study guides, and tips for your assessments. You'll be part of the CIPD community where you can network and learn from the experience of senior professionals, as well as connect with fellow learners for friendly support.

When you complete and pass your Apprenticeship, you will automatically be eligible to apply to become an Associate Member of CIPD.

Benefits to support you

You'll benefit from effective support for your studies, powerful career advice, opportunities to network with senior professionals. Take a look at some key benefits.

Student Hub

A dedicated Student hub which provides you with all the support you need during your studies, such as useful FAQs, tips, resources and the networking opportunities available with other students and professionals.

Career hub

The Career hub is an online gateway to a host of information, tools and advice to support you throughout your career. It's designed to make the most of your career development opportunities. You can also access an interactive profession map to plan your CPD, build a competency framework.

Knowledge hub

Explore a wealth of leading-edge resources to support you in your work and studies, including full-text access to over 200 business and HR/L&D journals, plus research updates, policies, factsheets, podcasts and blogs.

Your Intec Tutor will use a range of the CIPD resources as part of your apprenticeship learning experience.

Online communities

Be part of an exclusive online communities providing you with a place to learn, debate and connect with like-minded professionals. Join the conversation through CIPD social media platforms – LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook or Instagram.

Wellbeing helpline

Learners will have access to a suite of products and services to support your mental health and wellbeing providing you with a structured way to work through physical or mental health issues and any financial difficulty you may be currently facing.

What are the next steps?

After completing and successfully passing your Apprenticeship, you will automatically be eligible to become an Associate Member.

Associate Member

Show you have business impact

Associate Membership demonstrates you have the people skills to deliver on today's business needs. You're sought-after for your experience, trusted for your up-to-date knowledge, and respected for your professional commitment to good practice.

Your 'Assoc CIPD' designation helps to raise your profile within the people profession. It establishes your credibility and knowledge as a professional.

Working at Associate Member grade means you're delivering an operational impact with increasing complexity. You're using your knowledge to address and react to business needs, and you actively influence the day-to-day people approach in your organisation. When you're an Associate Member, you can use the designation 'Assoc CIPD' after your name.

Member benefits to support you

A wealth of business insight, essential knowledge and expert legal advice ensures you're pro-active, insightful and confident in your role. You can make professional connections, expand your learning and career opportunities, plus save on books, events, training courses and more. Take a look at some key benefits for Associate Members.

Local branch network

59 local branches throughout the UK, offering networking and learning opportunities in your local area. Get in touch with your local branch to find out what's happening near you.

Online communities

Be part of an exclusive online communities providing you with a place to learn, debate and connect with like-minded professionals. Join the conversation through our social media platforms – LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook or Instagram.

Knowledge hub

Explore a wealth of leading-edge resources to support you in your work and studies, including full-text access to over 200 business and HR/L&D journals, plus research updates, policies, factsheets, podcasts and blogs.

Employment law

Discover a wealth of legal resources to help you address employment law at work. This includes access to a broad range of topic pages and legal advice through our employment law helplines.

*Plus, connect with your peers through the Employment Law forum. And, as a CIPD member, you can save 50% on HR-Inform, a practical online tool to ensure your business stays legally compliant.*

Wellbeing helpline

CIPD members have access to a suite of products and services to support your mental health and wellbeing during these challenging times - providing you with a structured way to work through physical or mental health issues and any financial difficulty you may be currently facing.

Enabling you to develop, progress and achieve.